

I have really enjoyed my evenings without having to get up and answer the phone for sales persons. I'm sure I will vote for anyone that is willing to keep my privacy for a longer period than this. I'm will be very very disappointed and I know alot of my friends and family members will be also. I will promise you I will vote differently next time if my right to privacy is taken away.